

FORCED TO FLEE

STORIES OF ASYLUM SEEKERS FROM DARFUR, SUDAN

I only met those who managed to get through.

Those who witnessed the attacks on their villages, the burning down of their homes. Those who buried their dead. Those who fled in secret to reach a safe town or a refugee camp.

Those who were captured, imprisoned or tortured. Those who managed to escape from prison. Those who crossed the Sahara.

Those who worked illegally in Libya to pay for the crossing of the Mediterranean. Those who reached the safety of land after an exhausting series of adventures.

Those who do not speak the language of the country where they arrive.

Who are these men and sometimes women who ask for asylum in France?

Marie-José Tubiana is Honorary Director of Research at the CNRS. A specialist of African Social Anthropology, she has mainly worked in Chad and Sudan in the communities of pastoralists and of crop farmers, namely Zaghawa, Bideyat, Tunjur and their neighbours.

13,50 €

ISBN: 978-2-343-12413-1

9 782343 124131

aresæ

L'Harmattan

FORCED TO FLEE

MARIE-JOSÉ TUBIANA

MARIE-JOSÉ TUBIANA

FORCED TO FLEE

STORIES OF ASYLUM SEEKERS FROM DARFUR, SUDAN

Translated from the french by Philip O'Prey

